

BFI NETWORK Connect + Collab Summer 2021: Producer Application (APPLICATION PREVIEW)

BFI NETWORK teams at Film Hub South West, South East and Midlands are once again coming together to run an online networking event for producers from across the UK to meet writers, directors and writer-directors based in our regions who are looking to collaborate on short-form narrative projects.

The event will run via online platform Deal Room on Thursday 12 August 2021 between 9am and 8pm and enable talent to book private 121s with those whose profiles indicate they might be possible future collaborators.

Accessibility:

We are committed to accessibility and we will do everything we can to remove possible barriers to attendance so please let us know how we can make the experience as useful and comfortable as possible.

Who can apply:

Participation in the BFI NETWORK Connect + Collab is free and open to UK based producers from all creative disciplines with aspirations to produce short films. As space is limited, there is a selection process before your attendance is confirmed.

To apply you must be:

- 18 or over
- Not in full-time education
- Based in the UK
- Able to demonstrate a willingness to produce the work of other writers and directors
- Open to working with talent in the South West, South East and Midlands of England as defined by the BFI (BFI UK regions and nations map)
- Actively looking to develop narrative short film projects (under 15 minutes) that would be eligible for the BFI NETWORK Short Film Fund (download the guidelines here)
- Available to attend the online event on Thursday 12 August 2021 9am-8pm for either the full day or part of the day.
